

Experience the Power of LeadingAge Membership

Maximize your LeadingAge membership by creating or logging into your My LeadingAge account to unlock access to member-exclusive resources, peer networks, and opportunities. Your My LeadingAge account connects you and your organization to timely, relevant information and expands your ability to network with your LeadingAge community of more than 5,000 nonprofit aging services providers and other mission-minded organizations.

Get Started

Visit Community.LeadngAge.org to create or log into your My LeadingAge account to:

- Gain access to member-only content on www.LeadngAge.org.
- Register for conferences and online opportunities in the Learning Hub.
- Keep your contact information current.
- Connect with your peers in the online My LeadingAge Member Community.

Control Email Communications

When you create a My LeadingAge account, you are automatically subscribed to LeadingAge member communications. However, you are in control of what and how often you receive LeadingAge emails that matter most to you.

- At the bottom of any LeadingAge email, click the “update your preferences” hyperlink to adjust which types of emails you receive.
- You can also visit <https://bit.ly/LeadingAgeEmail> and enter the email address associated with your My LeadingAge account. If your email address is in the system, a hyperlink will appear for you to click and instantly sign-up and manage your email preferences.

Connect with Peers in the My LeadingAge Member Community

The My LeadingAge Member Community is where LeadingAge members across the country connect with one another online to exchange knowledge, solve problems, and share resources. With more than 25 groups to join, the My LeadingAge Member Community offers a space for peer-to-peer networking on opportunities, challenges, and priorities relevant to your work.

Joining one or several groups is easy!

1. Visit Community.LeadngAge.org and enter the email and password associated with your My LeadingAge account.
2. Click the Groups tab at the top of your screen. Ensure the list view is set to Active Groups.
3. Browse the available groups.
4. Select the group of interest and click the Join Group button.
5. Explore the recent activity, including posts, announcements, and resources.
